You will be asked to choose your personal user ID and password in accordance with the requirements and limitations of the Online Security Measures. You authorize us to follow any instructions entered through the Service using your user ID and password. You agree not to give or make available your user ID and password to any person. Sharing this information constitutes a misuse and therefore, all transactions initiated by those with whom you shared information will be considered as authorized by you, regardless of whether you intended those transactions to be made. We may ask you to change your user ID and password from time to time for security reasons. You agree not to use any language that is abusive, harassing, libelous, defamatory, obscene or threatening when defining your user ID or any other personalization of your account(s).

It is possible you may access your user ID and password within the Service through biometric identification settings on your device, including but not limited to, fingerprint recognition, face recognition, iris recognition, voice recognition; under various trade names, including but not limited to, Touch ID or Face ID or Fingerprint (collectively any biometric access to your user ID or password through biometric or similar access from you device are hereinafter referred to as “Biometric Access”).

Truist does not provide any Biometric Access technology and does not save biometric information in the Service or access any biometric information on the access device. Biometric Access must be enabled on the device in order to enable it for online banking, and Truist may limit use of Biometric Access to accessing your user ID and password in certain circumstances, but you are solely responsible for the access device security and use of user ID and password. Truist does not save your Service password on your access device.

You acknowledge and agree that anyone with Biometric Access to the access device, even if unknown to you, will have authority to access your accounts and will be authorized to initiate transactions through the Service.

4. Bill Pay Service

(a) Terms and Conditions of the Bill Pay Service

The Bill Pay Service enables you to make payments (either one-time or recurring payments) online from your designated checking, money market, or pre-paid card account to third parties as you direct; and receive electronic bills from participating Billers (defined below), view Biller bill summary and bill detail information.

By choosing to use the Bill Pay Service in addition to the Online Banking Service, you agree to be subject to the terms and conditions outlined in these Bill Pay Service terms.

We are offering you the Bill Pay Service through one or more Bill Pay Service Providers that we have engaged to render some or all of the Bill Pay Service to you on our behalf. However, notwithstanding that we have engaged such a Bill Pay Service Provider to render some or all of the Bill Pay Service to you, any liability to you for any payments or transfers conducted using the Bill Pay Service is borne by us and not the third party to the extent any liability attaches in connection with the Bill Pay Service. You agree that we have the right under this Agreement to delegate to Bill Pay Service Providers all of the rights and performance obligations that we have under this Agreement, and that the Bill Pay Service Providers will be third party beneficiaries of this Agreement and will be entitled to all the rights and protections that this Agreement provides to us.

(b) Bill Pay Service Definitions

The following definitions apply to the Bill Pay Service:

- "Bill Pay Service" means the bill payment service offered by Truist through our Bill Pay Service Providers.
- "Bill Pay Service Provider" means companies that we have engaged (and their affiliates) to render some or all of the Bill Pay Service to you on our behalf.
- "Bill Pay Site" means the portion of our online banking site or mobile application site through which the Bill Pay Service is accessed.
- "Biller" or "Payee" is the person or entity to which you wish a bill payment to be directed or is the person or entity from which you receive electronic bills.
- "Billing Account" is the account from which all Bill Pay Service fees will be automatically debited.
- "Deliver By Date" is the day you want your Biller to receive your bill payment, unless the Deliver by Date falls on a non-Business Day in which case the previous Business Day will be considered to be the Deliver by Date.
- "Due Date" is the date reflected on your Biller statement on which the payment is due. It is not the late date or grace period.
- "Exception Payments" means payments to deposit accounts or brokerage accounts, payments to settle securities transactions (including, without limitation, stocks, bonds, securities, futures (forex), options, or an investment interest in any entity or property).
- "Payment Account" is the checking, money market, or pre-paid card account from which bill payments will be debited. There may be limits on or fees associated with the number of withdrawals per month from money market accounts. Refer to the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule.
- "Payment Instruction" is the information provided by you to the Bill Pay Service for a bill payment to be made to the Biller (such as, but not limited to, Biller name, Biller account number, and Deliver By Date).
- "Scheduled Payment" is a payment that has been scheduled through the Bill Pay Service but has not begun processing.

(c) Bill Pay Service Guarantee

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Bill Pay Service, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Billers or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. We are not responsible for postal delays or processing delays by the recipients. The Bill Pay Service will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 per payment, should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the guidelines described under "Bill Payment Scheduling" in this Agreement.

(d) Bill Payment Scheduling

The earliest possible Deliver By Date for each Biller (typically five (5) or fewer Business Days from the current date) will be designated within the Bill Pay Site when you are scheduling the payment. Therefore, the Bill Pay Service will not permit you to select a Deliver By Date less than the earliest possible Deliver By Date designated for each Biller. When scheduling payments, you must select a Deliver By Date that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Biller statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Deliver By Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Deliver By Dates must be prior to any late date or grace period.

When you schedule a bill payment, you authorize us to withdraw the amount of your payment from your account(s) on a date prior to the Deliver By Date and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Deliver By Date designated by you.

For payments made by electronic transmission, the payment amount will be debited from, or charged to the account that you designate either two (2) Business Days prior to, or on the Deliver By Date. The date that applies to each payment will be displayed within the application, and may be shown as either "Withdraw On" date or "Payment Pending" date. For payments made by check, the account you designate will be debited when the check is presented to us for payment which may occur before, on, or after the Deliver By Date.

As indicated above, some payments may be made by a check. We send all checks through the United States Postal Service. We are not responsible for postal delays or processing delays by the recipients. Since we can't predict the exact date that a check will be presented to us for payment, please make sure you have sufficient funds in your account beginning a few days before your Scheduled Delivery Date and keep such funds available until the payment is deducted from your account.

(e) Expedited Payment

Please note, Expedited Payments may not be available for all customers. When scheduling payments within the application, options for Rush Delivery will be presented for participating Billers if Expedited Payments are available for your account. An Expedited Payment is an optional service available with participating Billers that allows you to have your payment initiated and processed immediately for an additional fee. There are two Expedited Payment options available. A Same Day Bill Pay (sent as an electronic payment to participating Billers) will be processed and posted the same day. An Overnight Check payment (sent as a paper draft payment to any Biller who accepts paper payments) will be sent via overnight delivery to the Biller for receipt by the end of the next Business Day. Please note, although the payment will arrive earlier than the typical four (4) Business Days, it is at the Biller's discretion how quickly the payment is processed and posted. The Bill Pay Service will automatically determine which Expedited Payment option is available to you to make payments to a specific Biller, and it will also automatically determine the date by which your Expedited Payment will be processed ("Delivered By Date").

The Expedited Payment option may not always be available. Depending on the time of day, you might not have sufficient lead time to make an Expedited Payment. If the Expedited Payment option is not available for an intended Biller, it will not be presented as an option to you and the earliest possible Deliver By Date, without a fee, will be designated.

Once you submit an Expedited Payment, it will begin processing immediately and you will not be able to change or cancel it (see Payment Cancellation Requests and Stop Payments Requests sections for additional information).

By selecting either of the Expedited Payment options, you authorize the Bill Pay Service to follow your payment instructions. For an Expedited Payment, you authorize us to charge a fee for each Expedited Payment as a separate transaction. The amount of each Expedited Payment and each fee will be deducted from your account as separate transactions, which might result in you incurring an overdraft charge for the Expedited Payment as well as an overdraft charge for the fee if you do not have sufficient funds to process either the Expedited Payment or the fee.

You may incur a fee when using the Expedited Payment options in accordance with the fee schedule applicable to your Account. Please refer to the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule for specific fee information

(f) Payment Authorization and Remittance

By providing the Bill Pay Service with names and account information of Billers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Bill Pay Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives from you through the Bill Payment Site. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Bill Pay Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Biller directives. This authorization extends to introductory electronic bill presentment and delivery for limited time periods for eligible users.

When the Bill Pay Service receives a Payment Instruction, you are authorizing the Bill Pay Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Deliver By Date designated by you. You also authorize the Bill Pay Service to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Bill Pay Service by the United States Postal Service or Biller, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Bill Pay Service.

The Bill Pay Service will attempt to make all your payments properly. However, we shall incur no liability and any Bill Pay Service Guarantee shall be void if the we are unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances: (i) If, through no fault of the Bill Pay Service your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account; (ii) The Bill Pay Service is not working properly and you know or have been advised about the malfunction before you execute the transaction; (iii) You have not provided the Bill Pay Service with the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Biller; and/or, (iv) Circumstances beyond control of the Bill Pay Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Bill Pay Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Bill Pay Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Biller which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Bill Pay Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Biller any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

(g) Payment Methods and Amounts

We reserve the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Biller. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic debit, an electronic to check payment, a paper check drawn on the account of our Bill Pay Service Provider, or a paper draft payment (funds remitted to the Biller are deducted from your Payment Account when the paper draft is presented to Truist for payment). You agree all paper drafts issued on your authorized instructions will be the same as if actually signed by you.

The method of payment delivery may change with or without notice to you. Therefore, sufficient funds should be available in your account a few days before the selected Deliver By Date. To avoid an overdraft or returned item fee, keep the funds available until the payment is deducted from your account.

There are limits on the amount of money you can send or receive through the Bill Pay Service. Your limits may be adjusted from time to time in our sole discretion. For certain Bill Pay Services, you may have the ability to log in to the Bill Pay Site to view your individual transaction limits.

(h) Payment Cancellation Requests

You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Bill Pay Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

(i) Stop Payment Requests

The Bill Pay Service's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method or whether or not an item has cleared. The Bill Pay Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been scheduled, call the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478), or write to:

Truist Bill Payment Research
301 S J.K Powell Blvd.
Whiteville, NC 28472

Requests submitted in writing must be received by us five (5) business days before the Deliver By Date. Although the Bill Pay Service will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Bill Pay Service will have no liability for failing to do so. For stop payments requested by phone, the Bill Pay Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. You will be charged a stop payment fee for each stop payment requested by you in accordance with the applicable fee schedule for your account.

(j) Prohibited Payments

The following types of payments are prohibited through the Bill Pay Service, and we have the right but not the obligation to monitor for, block, cancel and/or reverse such payments:

- i. Payments to or from persons or entities located in prohibited territories (including any territory outside of the United States); and

Except as required by applicable law, in no event shall we or our Bill Pay Service Providers be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of prohibited payments.

(k) Exception Payments

Exception Payments may be scheduled through the Service, however Exception Payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. Except as required by applicable law, in no event shall the Service be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of Exception Payments. The Bill Pay Service Guarantee does not apply to Exception Payments.

(l) Bill Delivery and Presentment

The Bill Pay Service includes a feature that electronically presents you with electronic bills from select Billers.

Electronic bills may not be available from all of your Billers. Electronic bills are provided as a convenience only, and you remain solely responsible for contacting your Billers directly if you do not receive their statements. In addition, if you elect to activate one of the Bill Pay Service's electronic bill options, you also agree to the following:

- i. Presentation of electronic bills – You will receive electronic bills from a Biller only if both: (a) you have designated it in the Bill Pay Service as one of your Billers, and (b) the Biller has arranged with the Bill Pay Service Provider to deliver electronic bills. The Bill Pay Service may then present you with electronic bills from that Biller if either: (1) you affirmatively elect online within the Bill Pay Service to receive electronic bills from the Biller, or (2) the Biller chooses to send you electronic bills on a temporary “trial basis.” In either case, you can elect online within the Bill Pay Service to stop receiving electronic bills from a Biller. Electing to receive electronic bills, automatically receiving trial electronic bills, and declining further elected or trial electronic bills all occur on an individual Biller basis. The Bill Pay Service does not include an option to prevent ever participating in the automatic trial electronic bill feature. When affirmatively electing to receive electronic bills from a particular Biller, you may be presented with terms from that Biller for your acceptance. We are not a party to such terms.
- ii. Paper Copies of electronic bills – If you start receiving electronic bills from a Biller, the Biller may stop sending you paper or other statements. The ability to receive a paper copy of your statement(s) is at the sole discretion of the Biller. Check with the individual Biller regarding your ability to obtain paper copies of electronic bills on a regular or as-requested basis.
- iii. Sharing Information with Billers – You authorize us to share identifying personal information about you (such as name, address, telephone number, Biller account number) with companies that you have identified as your Billers and which we have identified as offering electronic bills for purposes of matching your identity on the Bill Pay Service’s records and the Biller’s records to (a) activate your affirmative request for electronic bills, and/or (b) confirm your eligibility for “trial basis” electronic bills.
- iv. Information provided to the Biller – We are unable to update or change your personal information such as, but not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and email addresses that is held by the Biller. Any changes will require you to contact the Biller directly. Additionally, it is your responsibility to maintain all usernames and passwords for all electronic Biller sites. You also agree not to use someone else's information to gain unauthorized access to another person's bill. We may, at the request of the Biller, provide to the Biller your email address, service address, or other data specifically requested by the Biller for purposes of the Biller matching your identity against its records or informing you about the Biller's services and/or bill information.
- v. Activation – We will notify the Biller of your request to receive electronic billing information. The presentment of your first electronic bill may vary from Biller to Biller and may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. While your electronic bill feature is being activated it is your responsibility to keep your accounts current. Each electronic Biller reserves the right to accept or deny your request to receive electronic bills.
- vi. Authorization to obtain bill data – You authorize us to obtain bill data from your Billers that you have requested to send you electronic bills, and from your Billers that wish to send you trial electronic bills. For some Billers, you will be asked to provide us with your user name and password for that Biller. By providing us with such information, you authorize us to use the information to obtain your bill data.
- vii. Notification – We will attempt to present all of your electronic bills promptly. In addition to notification within the Bill Pay Service, we may send an email notification to the email address listed for your account. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate. In the event you do not receive notification, it is your responsibility to periodically logon to the Bill Pay Service and check on the delivery of new electronic bills. The time for notification may vary from Biller to Biller. You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills.
- viii. Cancellation of electronic bill notification – The electronic Biller reserves the right to cancel the presentment of electronic bills at any time. You may cancel electronic bill presentment at any time. The timeframe for cancellation of your electronic bill presentment may vary from Biller to Biller. It may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. We will notify your electronic Biller(s) as to the change in status of your account but it is your sole responsibility to make arrangements for an alternative form of bill delivery. We will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.

- ix. Non-Delivery of electronic bill(s) – You agree to hold us harmless should the Biller fail to deliver your statement(s). You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills. Copies of previously delivered bills must be requested from the Biller directly.
- x. Accuracy and dispute of electronic bill – We are not responsible for the accuracy of your electronic bill(s). We are only responsible for presenting the information we receive from the Biller. Any discrepancies or disputes regarding the accuracy of your electronic bill summary or detail must be addressed with the Biller directly.

These terms for the Bill Pay Service's electronic bill option does not alter your liability or obligations that currently exist between you and your Billers.

(m) Exclusions of Warranties for Bill Pay Service

(n) Service Fees

There are no fees for the standard Bill Pay Service. Fees associated with your standard deposit accounts, Expedited Payments, and other Truist services will continue to apply. Refer to Electronic Banking Services in the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule.

(o) Failed or Returned Transactions

In using the Bill Pay Service, you are requesting us or our Bill Pay Service Provider to make payments for you from your Payment Account. If we are unable to complete the Payment Instruction for any reason associated with your Payment Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Payment Account, or the Payment Instruction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Payment Account, to cover the payment), the transaction may or may not be completed. In certain circumstances, our Bill Pay Service Provider may either advance funds drawn on their corporate account or via an electronic debit, and in such circumstances will attempt to debit the Payment Account a second time to complete the Payment Instruction. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from us or our Bill Pay Service Provider. In each such case, you agree that:

- i. You will reimburse us or our Bill Pay Service Provider immediately upon demand the amount of the Payment Instruction if the payment has been delivered but there are insufficient funds in, or insufficient overdraft credits associated with, your Payment Account to allow the debit processing to be completed;
- ii. You may be assessed a late fee equal to one and a half percent (1.5%) of any unpaid amounts plus costs of collection by us, our Bill Pay Service Provider or our third-party contractors if the Payment Instruction cannot be debited because you have insufficient funds in your Payment Account, or the transaction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Payment Account, to cover the payment, or if the funds cannot otherwise be collected from you. The aforesaid amounts will be charged in addition to any insufficient funds charges that may be assessed by us, as set forth in your fee schedule from us (including as disclosed on the Bill Pay Site) or your account agreement with us. You hereby authorize us and our Bill Pay Service Provider to deduct all of these amounts from your designated Payment Account, including by ACH debit; and,
- iii. We and our Bill Pay Service Provider are authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

(p) Alterations and Amendments

These Bill Pay Service Terms, applicable fees and service charges may be altered or amended by us from time to time. We may make updates without providing notice to you, subject to applicable law. Any use of the Bill Pay Service after the change has gone into effect will constitute your agreement to such change(s). Further, we may, from time to time, revise or update the applications, services, and/or related material, which may render all such prior versions obsolete. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a prohibited payment or an Exception Payment under these Bill Pay Service terms.

(r) Returned Payments

In using the Bill Pay Service, you understand that Billers and/or the United States Postal Service may return payments to the Bill Pay Service for various reasons such as, but not limited to, Biller's forwarding address expired; Biller account number is not valid; Biller is unable to locate account; or Biller account is paid in full. The Bill Pay Service will attempt to research and correct the returned payment and return it to your Biller, or void the payment and credit your Payment Account. You may receive notification from the Bill Pay Service.

iii. Failed or Returned Transactions

You are requesting Truist to make payments for you from your Payment Account. If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your Payment Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Payment Account to cover the transaction), the transaction will not be completed.

iv. Funds Transfer/Payments Cancellation Requests

You may cancel or edit any scheduled funds transfer or payments (including recurring funds transfers or payments) by following the directions within the Service. There is no charge for canceling a scheduled funds transfer or payment. Once Truist has begun processing a funds transfer or payment, it cannot be cancelled or edited.

v. Withdrawal Transaction Limitations

The restrictions on the number of withdrawals from your savings and money market accounts and associated overage fees apply to payments and funds transfers between accounts and bills paid from these accounts initiated through Service. Refer to the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule.

(b) External Transfers

i. General

The External Transfers service allows you to transfer funds between your personal Truist deposit accounts and certain deposit or investment accounts that are owned by you at another U.S. financial institution. With the External Transfers service, you can:

- (i) Transfer Funds Inbound from an account owned by you at another U.S. financial institution
- (ii) Transfer Funds Outbound to an account owned by you at another U.S. financial institution

Truist account types that are eligible for the External Transfers service include personal checking, savings, and money market. These account types must be in good standing and eligible for ACH transactions. Business accounts are not eligible.

Enrollment of accounts is subject to our approval, which may be withheld in our sole discretion. You must be the sole owner, or a joint owner, of the Truist account and the account at another U.S. financial institution. You will be notified if we are unable to verify your ownership of an account. We may require additional verification of your ownership of any account at any time before or after enrollment and before or after allowing any transfer activity with respect to that account (additional verification). By enrolling an account at another U.S. financial institution, you authorize the account-holding institution to disclose to us any information we request about you or the account and agree to cooperate in additional verification, including promptly providing any identification and/or other account documentation we may request.

Other financial institutions may have restrictions regarding transfers into and out of various account types. Truist is not responsible for any costs or losses arising out of transfers that are not permitted by another financial institution. Please refer to your other financial institution's terms and conditions related to incoming and outgoing transfers.

ii. Types of Transfer Requests

An inbound transfer moves funds into a Truist account from an account at another U.S. financial institution. An outbound transfer moves funds from a Truist account to an account at another U.S. financial institution.

For each inbound and outbound transfer, you may elect one of the following options:

- (i) a one-time transfer for which processing shall be initiated immediately,
 - (ii) a one-time transfer for which processing shall be initiated at a later specified date up to one (1) year, and
 - (iii) a recurring series of transfers for which processing shall be initiated on the specified dates.
- Further details about each of these options can be found within the External Transfers application.

3-Business-Day Transfers: If your transfer request is submitted prior to the cut-off time, funds will be debited the business day after you submit the transfer request and will be credited on the third business day after you submit the transfer request. 3-business-day transfers are available to all users of the Outside Transfer Service.

Next-Day Transfers: Subject to our approval and provided your transfer request is submitted prior to the cut-off time, funds will be debited and credited on the business day after you submit the transfer. Next-day transfers are permitted only at our discretion. Once approved, you will remain eligible for next-day transfers, unless we provide you with notice otherwise. Next-day transfers are not available for future-dated or repeating transfers.

iii. Cut-off Time

The cut-off time for standard 3-business-day transfers is 12 am (midnight) ET. The cut-off time for next-day transfers is 7 pm ET. Any transfer made after the cut-off time will be submitted the next business day. Weekends and Bank holidays are excluded as business days. Truist is not responsible for any failure of another financial institution to respond in a timely manner.

iv. Future-dated and Repeating Transfers

You may schedule both inbound and outbound transfers to occur on a future business day or on a repeating basis, up to one year in advance. The repeating transfer feature may be used when the same amount is transferred at regular intervals. Your future-dated or repeating transfer requests are submitted on the day in which they are scheduled or the first business day after they are scheduled if that day is not a business day. Funds will then be debited on the first business day after the transfer request is submitted, and will be credited on the third business day after the transfer request is submitted.

If you schedule a future-dated or repeating transfer to occur on a day of the month that does not exist (e.g., the thirty-first of the month), the transfer request will be submitted on the last business day of the month and will be credited to your account on the third business day after the transfer request is submitted.

v. Transfer Status

You may check the status of any transfer by logging into the service. Transfers are pending from the time you request the funds transfer until the transfer is released for processing. A transfer remains in process until the funds have been transferred, at which time the status will change to complete. 3-business-day transfers typically remain in process until the close of the third business day after the transfer is submitted. Next-day transfers may remain in process until the close of the next business day after the transfer is submitted.

vi. Canceling a Transfer

You may cancel or edit any scheduled external transfer (including recurring funds transfers) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling a scheduled external transfer. Once Truist has begun processing a funds transfer it cannot be cancelled or edited.

vii. Transfer Limits

We reserve the right to limit the frequency and dollar amount of any transfers depending on internal criteria. Limits applicable to your account(s) will be displayed within the application and/or applied at the time of scheduling a transfer. Truist reserves full discretion to raise or lower limits, generally or as to particular accounts, at any time and without prior notice.

In addition, there may be limits on or fees associated with the number of transfers per month from certain types of accounts, such as savings and money market accounts. Refer to your Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule or your deposit agreement with the account-holding institution.

viii. Service Cancellation and Suspension

We may cancel or suspend your use of the External Transfer Service or disqualify any account from eligibility to conduct External Transfers without prior notice.

ix. External Transfers Authorization and Remittance

You authorize Truist to validate the account(s) that are established for this service and owned by you at other U.S. financial institution(s). Some financial institutions may restrict accounts eligible for this service.

You agree to have sufficient available funds in the designated account to cover all Outbound Transfers on the scheduled date. If the deposit account does not have sufficient available funds on the scheduled date, we may elect not to initiate your transfer request.

Truist shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the we are unable to complete any External Transfer transaction request initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances: (i) If through no fault of Truist, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account; (ii) The external transfer service is not working properly and you know or have been advised by Truist about the malfunction before you execute the transaction; (iii) Circumstances beyond control of Truist (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Provider has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if Truist causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Payment Account which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, we shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing the proper funds to the correct Payment Account.

Or write:

(b) Liability Provisions

The following provisions apply in the event you believe there has been an unauthorized transfer from your consumer account. Please refer to the applicable account agreement for other important disclosures regarding your rights and responsibilities.

i. Your Liability

Tell us at once if you believe your user ID and password have been forgotten or stolen. Calling is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account plus your maximum overdraft line of credit. If you believe your user ID and password have been forgotten or stolen, and you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your user ID and password without your permission.

If you do not tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your user ID and password, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your user ID and password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you or otherwise made available to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason, such as a long trip or a hospital stay, kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

ii. Bank Liability for Transfers

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. This liability is in addition to the payment guarantee for bill payments. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

(i) If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer or payment.

(ii) If the transfer or payment would go over the credit limit on your overdraft line.

(iii) If the funds in your account are subject to legal process or other encumbrance restricting such transfer.

(iv) If the service, your electronic device, or modem is not working properly and you know about the malfunction when you started the transfer or payment.

(v) If a recipient mishandles or causes delays in handling payments sent by us.

(vi) If you have not provided us with the correct recipient name, address, account information or payment amount.

(vii) If circumstances beyond our control prevent the proper completion of the transaction despite reasonable precautions by us to avoid these circumstances. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, fire, flood, delay in US Mail, interruption in your electrical power or telephone, the disconnecting of your telephone line by your local telephone company or from deficiencies in your line quality or any defect or malfunction of your electronic device, operating software, modem or telephone line.

(viii) If you have not properly followed the instructions for using the service or the personal financial management software.

(ix) If the account holding institution fails to timely credit an outbound transfer to your non-Truist account for reasons beyond our control.

(x) If we have the right to refuse to process a payment or transfer as provided in this agreement.

(c) Consent to Share Personal Information (Including Account Information)

We may disclose information to third parties about your account or the funds you send or receive:

- i. as necessary to complete transactions;
- ii. as necessary in connection with offering the Zelle Service;
- iii. in connection with the investigation of any claim related to your account or the funds you send or receive;
- iv. to comply with government agency or court orders;
- v. in accordance with your written permission; and
- vi. as otherwise permitted by the terms of our privacy notice.

(d) Privacy and Information Security

We make security and the protection of your information a top priority. You can access our Privacy Policy, which Privacy is incorporated into and made a part of this Zelle Agreement by this reference.

(e) Wireless Operator Data

We or Zelle may use information on file with your wireless operator to further verify your identity and to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud or unauthorized use of the Zelle Service. By using the Zelle Service, you authorize your wireless operator (AT&T, Sprint, T-Mobile, US Cellular, Verizon or any other branded wireless operator) to disclose your mobile number, name, address, email, network status, customer type, customer role, billing type, mobile device identifiers (IMSI and IMEI) and other subscriber and device status details, if available, to our third party service provider solely to allow verification of your identity and to compare information you have provided to Truist or to Zelle with your wireless operator account profile information for the duration of our business relationship. See Zelle's Privacy Policy for how it treats your data.

(f) Enrolling in the Service

You must provide us with an email address that you regularly use and intend to use regularly (i.e., no disposable email addresses) and a permanent U.S. mobile phone number that you intend to use for an extended period of time (i.e., no "burner" numbers). You may not enroll in the Zelle Service with a landline phone number, Google Voice number, or Voice over Internet Protocol.

Once enrolled you may: (i) authorize a debit of your account to send money to another User either at your initiation or at the request of that User; and (ii) receive money from another User either at that User's initiation or at your request, subject to the conditions of the Section below titled "Requesting Money."

If at any time while you are enrolled, you do not send or receive money using the Zelle Service for a period of 18 consecutive months, we may contact you and/or take other steps to confirm that the U.S. mobile phone number or email address that you enrolled still belongs to you. If we are unable to confirm that you are the owner of the mobile phone number or email address, then you understand that we may cancel your enrollment and you will not be able to send or receive money with the Zelle Service until you enroll again.

Once enrolled, a Z logo will appear on your profile picture for each U.S. mobile number and/or email address that you have enrolled with Zelle. The Z logo will be displayed to other Users to aid them in determining which of your U.S. mobile numbers or email addresses should be used to send money with Zelle. If a User sends you money using a different U.S. mobile number or email address that they may have for you (one that is not already enrolled), you will receive a message with instructions on how to enroll with Zelle at the unenrolled U.S. mobile number or email address that was selected.

(g) Consent to Emails and Automated Text Messages

By participating as a User, you represent that you are the owner of the email address, mobile phone number, and/or other alias you registered, or that you have the delegated legal authority to act on behalf of the owner of such email address, mobile phone number and/or other alias to send or receive money as described in this Zelle Agreement. You consent to the receipt of emails or text messages from us, from Zelle, from other Users that are sending you money or requesting money from you, and from other Network Banks or their agents regarding the Zelle Service or related transfers between Network Banks and you. You agree that we may, Zelle may or either of our agents may use automatic telephone dialing systems in connection with text messages sent to any mobile phone number you register. You further acknowledge and agree:

- i. You are responsible for any fees or other charges that your wireless carrier may charge for any related data, text or other message services, including without limitation for short message service. Please check your mobile service agreement for details or applicable fees.
- ii. You will immediately notify us if any email address or mobile phone number you have registered is (i) surrendered by you, or (ii) changed by you.
- iii. In the case of any messages that you may send through either us or Zelle or that we may send or Zelle may send on your behalf to an email address or mobile phone number, you represent that you have obtained the consent of the recipient of such emails or automated text messages to send such emails or text messages to the recipient. You understand and agree that any emails or text messages that we send or that Zelle sends on your behalf may include your name.
- iv. Your wireless carrier is not liable for any delay or failure to deliver any message sent to or from us or Zelle, including messages that you may send through us or through Zelle or that we may send or Zelle may send on your behalf.
- v. To cancel text messaging from us, send STOP to 878478. For help or information regarding text messaging, send HELP to 878478 or call the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478). You expressly consent to receipt of a text message to confirm your "STOP" request.

(h) Receiving Money; Money Transfers by Network Banks

Once a User initiates a transfer of money to your email address or mobile phone number registered with the Zelle Service, you have no ability to stop the transfer. By using the Zelle Service, you agree and authorize us to initiate credit entries to the bank account you have enrolled.

Most transfers of money to you from other Users will occur within minutes. There may be other circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Banks, we may need or Zelle may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person sending the money. We may also delay or block the transfer to prevent fraud or to meet our regulatory obligations. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated through a request for money, we will notify you in accordance with your User preferences (i.e., email, push notification).

If you are receiving a payment from a business or government agency, your payment will be delivered in accordance with both this Zelle Agreement and the procedures of the business or government agency that is sending you the payment.

(i) Sending Money; Debits by Network Banks

You may send money to another User at your initiation or in response to that User's request for money. Money sent using Zelle is authorized against the Current Balance in your designated Truist deposit account. The Current Balance is the actual balance in your account on a specific day, and does not reflect any holds or pending transactions. It is your sole responsibility to ensure you have on deposit sufficient collected funds to cover all transactions at the time they are presented for payment or are scheduled to be made. We may refuse to process any transaction if sufficient collected funds are not available in your account to fund the transaction. You agree to accept our procedures for calculating collected balances, and you acknowledge our records regarding the same will be deemed conclusive. You understand that use of this Zelle Service by you shall at all times be subject to (i) this Zelle Agreement, and (ii) your express authorization at the time of the transaction for us or another Network Bank to initiate a debit entry to your bank account. You understand that when you send the payment, you will have no ability to stop it. You may only cancel a payment if the person to whom you sent the money has not yet enrolled in the Zelle Service. If the person you sent money to has already enrolled with Zelle, either in the Zelle mobile app or with a Network Bank, the money is sent directly to their bank account (except as otherwise provided below) and may not be canceled or revoked. We therefore recommend that you use the Zelle Service to send money only to people and businesses you know and trust.

In most cases, when you are sending money, the transfer will occur in minutes; however, there are circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Banks, we may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person receiving the money. If you are sending money to someone who has not registered as a User with either Zelle or a Network Bank, they will receive a text or email notification instructing them on how to enroll to receive the money. You understand and acknowledge that a person or business to whom you are sending money and who is not registered as a User may fail to register with Zelle, or otherwise ignore the payment notification, and the transfer may not occur.

The money may also be delayed or the transfer may be blocked to prevent fraud or comply with regulatory requirements. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated, we will notify you in accordance with your User preferences (i.e. email, push notification).

We have no control over the actions of other Users, other Network Banks or other financial institutions that could delay or prevent your money from being delivered to the intended User.

(j) Liability

Neither we nor Zelle shall have liability to you for any such transfers of money, including without limitation, (i) any failure, through no fault of us or Zelle to complete a transaction in the correct amount, or (ii) any related losses or damages. Neither we nor Zelle shall be liable for any typos or keystroke errors that you may make when using the Zelle Service.

THIS ZELLE SERVICE IS INTENDED TO SEND MONEY TO FRIENDS, FAMILY AND PEOPLE/BUSINESSES WITH WHOM YOU ARE FAMILIAR. YOU SHOULD NOT USE ZELLE TO SEND MONEY TO PERSONS OR BUSINESSES THAT YOU DO NOT TRUST. YOU AGREE THAT YOU, NOT WE OR ZELLE, ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR RESOLVING ANY PAYMENT OR OTHER DISPUTES THAT YOU HAVE WITH ANY OTHER USER WITH WHOM YOU SEND MONEY TO, OR RECEIVE OR REQUEST MONEY FROM, USING THE ZELLE SERVICE.

(k) Send Limits

We may, at our sole discretion, impose or change the limits on the amount of money you can send or receive through the Zelle Service. Such limits may be displayed in the Zelle Service application.

You may request money from another User. You understand and acknowledge that Users to whom you send payment requests may reject or ignore your request. Neither we nor Zelle guarantee that you will receive money from other Users by sending a payment request, or that you will receive the amount that you request. Neither we nor Zelle accept responsibility if the other User rejects or ignores your request, or sends you an amount that is less than you request. If a User ignores your request, we may decide or Zelle may decide, in our sole discretion, that we will not send a reminder or repeat request to that User.

By accepting this Zelle Agreement, you agree that you are not engaging in the business of debt collection by attempting to use the Zelle Service to request money for the payment or collection of an overdue or delinquent debt; to request money that is owed to another person; or to collect any amounts that are owed pursuant to a court order. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Zelle, its owners, directors, officers, agents and Network Banks from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorney's fees, resulting from or arising out of any request for money that you send that is related to overdue or delinquent amounts.

You agree to receive money requests from other Users, and to only send requests for legitimate and lawful purposes. Requests for money are solely between the sender and recipient and are not reviewed or verified by us or by Zelle. Neither we nor Zelle assume responsibility for the accuracy or legality of such requests and do not act as a debt collector on your behalf or on behalf of the sender of a request for money.

We reserve the right, but assume no obligation, to terminate your ability to send requests for money in general, or to specific recipients, if we deem such requests to be potentially unlawful, abusive, offensive or unwelcome by the recipient.

(m) Transaction Errors

In case of errors or questions about your Zelle transfers call us at:

844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478)

Or write:

Truist Online Banking Support

P.O. Box 1014

Charlotte, NC 28201

Contact Truist as soon as you can if you think your statement or information regarding a transaction is wrong or you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the first statement on which the problem or error appeared. When contacting Truist regarding an error resolution, please be prepared to communicate the following information:

- Your name and Social Security number or tax identification number;
- The Zelle error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and
- The dollar amount of the suspected Zelle error.

If you tell us orally, we may require you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account.

If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within 3 business days after we finish our investigation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

(n) Your Liability for Unauthorized Zelle Transfers

Tell us at once if you believe your user ID and password have been forgotten or stolen. Calling is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account plus your maximum overdraft line of credit. If your statement shows Zelle transfers you did not make, you must tell us at once. You will have no liability for unauthorized Zelle transactions if you notify us within sixty (60) days after your monthly financial statement, which shows the unauthorized Zelle transaction, has been sent to you. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you or otherwise made available to you, you may lose the amount transferred without your authorization after the sixty (60) days if we can prove we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason, such as a long trip or a hospital stay, kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

When you give someone your password or other means to access your account through which you access the Zelle Service, you are authorizing that person to use your service, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using your service. All transactions that person performs, even those transactions you did not intend or want performed, are authorized transactions. Additionally, transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions.

(o) Liability for Failure to Complete Zelle Transfers

If we do not complete a Zelle transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our Zelle Agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

- i. If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the Zelle transfer or payment.
- ii. If the Zelle transfer or payment would go over the credit limit on your overdraft line.
- iii. If the funds in your account are subject to legal process or other encumbrance restricting such transfer.
- iv. If the Zelle Service, your electronic device, or modem is not working properly and you know about the malfunction when you started the transfer or payment.
- v. If a recipient mishandles or causes delays in handling payments sent by us.
- vi. If you have not provided us with the correct recipient information or payment amount.
- vii. If circumstances beyond our control prevent the proper completion of the Zelle transaction despite reasonable precautions by us to avoid these circumstances. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, fire, flood, interruption in your electrical power or telephone, the disconnecting of your telephone line by your local telephone company or from deficiencies in your line quality or any defect or malfunction of your electronic device, operating software, modem or telephone line.
- viii. If you have not properly followed the instructions for using the Zelle Service.
- ix. If the account holding institution fails to timely credit to your recipient.
- x. If we have the right to refuse to process a payment or transfer as provided in this Zelle Agreement.

(p) Fees

Business accounts eligible to use the Zelle Service will be charged a fee for any amounts received. Please refer to the Business Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule for specific fee information. The total fee for payments received by enrolled business accounts will appear on the monthly Account Analysis statement (available online or upon request) and included in the total Account Analysis Service Charges debited once a month. This charge is included on the monthly Deposit Statement as "Service Charges – Prior Period." The service charges listed reflect the activity from the prior month. Consumer accounts do not incur any fees for amounts received.

There are no fees for eligible accounts to send or request money with the Zelle Service.

Please keep in mind that other service charges may apply. For example, there may be additional fees charged against your accounts if a transaction you initiate using the service causes any of your accounts to be overdrawn, exceed the maximum permissible number of transactions for the accounts or exceed any other qualifiers for the accounts. Refer to the applicable account service agreement and fee schedule, either your Bank Services Agreement and the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule, or your Commercial Bank Services Agreement and Business Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule.

(q) Use of Our Site

You agree to access the Truist site and mobile app in compliance with the Truist Online and Mobile Banking Service Agreement.

(r) Right to Terminate Access

You may terminate your use of the Zelle Service at any time by visiting your local Truist branch, by calling the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478) or by writing to us at Truist Online Banking Support, P.O. Box 1014, Charlotte, NC 28201. You must notify us at least 10 days prior to the date on which you wish to have your Zelle Service terminated. We may require that you put your request in writing. If there is more than one account owner or if more than one person is authorized to access the account through the Zelle Service, we may terminate the Zelle Service upon the request of any account owner or person authorized to access the account.

We may terminate your use of the Zelle Service, in whole or in part, at any time without notice. Upon termination, you will remain liable for payments, transfers and other transactions in process and all accrued fees and charges.

IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH ZELLE'S SERVICE OR WITH THE TERMS OF THIS ZELLE AGREEMENT, YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY IS TO DISCONTINUE USING THE ZELLE SERVICE.

IN THOSE STATES WHERE THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES MAY NOT APPLY, ANY LIABILITY OF ZELLE, ITS OWNERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND AGENTS OR THE NETWORK BANKS LIABILITY IN THOSE STATES IS LIMITED AND WARRANTIES ARE EXCLUDED TO THE GREATEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, BUT SHALL, IN NO EVENT, EXCEED ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100.00).

(u) Indemnification

You acknowledge and agree that you are personally responsible for your conduct while using the Zelle Service, and except as otherwise provided in this Zelle Agreement, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless

Zelle, its owners, directors, officers, agents and Network Banks from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorneys' fees, resulting from or arising out of your use, misuse, errors, or inability to use the Zelle Service, or any violation by you of the terms of this Zelle Agreement.

(v) Governing Law; Choice of Law; Severability

8. Mobile Check Deposit

The following terms apply to the use of the Mobile Check Deposit service via online and mobile banking.

- (a) The mobile remote deposit capture services ("Services") are designed to allow you to make deposits to your eligible Truist accounts from remote locations by scanning checks and delivering the images and associated deposit information to Truist or Truist's designated processor.
- (b) Further, Truist reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove portions from the Services. Your continued use of the Services will indicate your acceptance of any such changes to the Services and terms.
- (c) When using the Services, you may experience technical or other difficulties. We will attempt to post alerts on our website or send you a text message to notify you of these interruptions in Service. We cannot assume responsibility for any technical or other difficulties or any resulting damages that you may incur. Some of the Services have qualification requirements, and we reserve the right to change the qualifications at any time without prior notice. We reserve the right to change, suspend or discontinue the Services, in whole or in part, or your use of the Services, in whole or in part, immediately and at any time without prior notice to you.
- (d) Truist is not responsible for any third party software you may need to use the Services. Any such software is accepted by you as is and is subject to the terms and conditions of the software agreement you enter into directly with the third party software provider at time of download and installation.
- (e) You agree to scan and deposit only "checks" as that term is defined in Federal Reserve Regulation CC ("Reg. CC"). When the image of the check transmitted to Truist is converted to an Image Replacement Document for subsequent presentment and collection, it shall thereafter be deemed an "item" within the meaning of Articles 3 and 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code.
- (f) You agree that you will not scan and deposit any of the following types of checks or other items which shall be considered ineligible items:
 - i. Checks payable to any person or entity other than the person or entity that owns the account that the check is being deposited into.
 - ii. Checks containing an alteration on the front of the check or item, or which you know or suspect, or should know or suspect, are fraudulent or otherwise not authorized by the owner of the account on which the check is drawn.
 - iii. Checks payable jointly, unless deposited into an account in the name of all payees.

- iv. Checks previously converted to a substitute check, as defined in Reg. CC.
 - v. Checks drawn on a financial institution located outside the United States.
 - vi. Checks that are remotely created checks, as defined in Reg. CC.
 - vii. Checks not payable in United States currency.
 - viii. Checks dated more than 6 months prior to the date of deposit.
 - ix. Checks or items prohibited by Truist's current procedures relating to the Services or which are otherwise not acceptable under the terms of your Truist account.
 - x. Checks payable on sight or payable through Drafts, as defined in Reg. CC.
 - xi. Checks with any endorsement on the back other than that specified in this agreement.
 - xii. Checks that have previously been submitted through the Service or through a remote deposit capture service offered at any other financial institution.
- (g) You agree to write an endorsement on any and all items transmitted through the Services as "For deposit only at Truist" or as otherwise instructed by Truist. You agree to follow any and all other procedures and instructions for use of the Services as Truist may establish from time to time.
- (h) We reserve the right to reject any item transmitted through the Services, at our discretion, without liability to you. We are not responsible for items we do not receive or for images that are dropped during transmission. An image of an item shall be deemed received when you receive a confirmation from Truist that we have received the image. Receipt of such confirmation does not mean that the transmission was error free, complete or will be considered a deposit and credited to your account. We further reserve the right to charge back to your account at any time, any item that we subsequently determine was not an eligible item. You agree that the Bank is not liable for any loss, costs, or fees you may incur as a result of our chargeback of an ineligible item.
- (i) In general, if an image of an item you transmit through the Service is received and accepted before 9 pm ET on a business day that we are open, we consider that day to be the day of your deposit. Otherwise, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open. Funds deposited using the Services will generally be made available the next business day unless a hold is placed, in which case funds will be available no later than seven business days from the day of deposit. For additional information, refer to the Funds Availability section of the Bank Services Agreement located on Truist.com.
- (j) Upon your receipt of a confirmation from Truist that we have received an image that you have transmitted, you agree to retain the check for at least 7 calendar days from the date of the image transmission. After 7 days, you agree to destroy the check that you transmitted as an image, mark it "VOID", or otherwise render it incapable of further transmission, deposit, or presentment. During the time the retained check is available, you agree to promptly provide it to Truist upon request.
- (k) We reserve the right to impose limits on the amount(s) and/or number of deposits (over a period of time set by us) that you transmit using the Service and to modify such limits from time to time. Your check deposit limits can be found by logging into the app.
- (l) The manner in which the items are cleared, presented for payment, and collected shall be in Truist's sole discretion subject to the Bank Services Agreement governing your account.
- (m) You agree to notify Truist of any suspected errors regarding items deposited through the Services right away, and in no event later than 30 days after the applicable Truist account statement is sent. Unless you notify Truist within 30 days, such statement regarding all deposits made through the Services shall be deemed correct, and you are prohibited from bringing a claim against Truist for such alleged error.
- (n) By using the Services you accept the risk that an item may be intercepted or misdirected during transmission. Truist bears no liability to you or others for any such intercepted or misdirected items or information disclosed through such errors.

- (o) The image of an item transmitted to Truist using the Services must be legible, as determined in the sole discretion of Truist. Without limiting the foregoing, the image quality of the items must comply with the requirements established from time to time by Truist, ANSI (American National Standards Institute), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board, or any other regulatory agency, clearinghouse or association.
- (p) You warrant to Truist that:
 - i. You will only transmit eligible items.
 - ii. You will not transmit duplicate items.
 - iii. You will not re-deposit or re-present the original item.
 - iv. All information you provide to Truist is accurate and true.
 - v. You will comply with this Agreement and all applicable rules, laws and regulations.
 - vi. You are not aware of any factor which may impair the collectability of the item.
 - vii. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Truist from any loss for breach of this warranty provision.
- (q) Any breach of the above warranties may result in cancellation of the Services for your specific profile in the Truist mobile application, closure of your accounts, or termination of the client relationship.
- (r) You agree to cooperate with us in the investigation of unusual transactions, poor quality transmissions, and resolution of customer claims, including by providing, upon request and without further cost, any originals or copies of items deposited through the Service in your possession and your records relating to such items and transmissions.
- (s) You are responsible for hardware and software compatibility to use mobile check deposit service.
- (t) You are responsible for any risk associated with deposits which are fraudulent, of unreadable image quality, or which have an incorrect declared amount.
- (u) You are responsible for retaining and disposing of paper deposits in a manner consistent with protection against fraud.
- (v) You agree not to make the Mobile Check Deposit software or any related product available or allow use of it in a computer services bureau business, timesharing, or otherwise disclose or allow use of the Mobile Check Deposit software or any related product by or for the benefit of any third party.
- (w) You shall not copy, disassemble, decompile, or otherwise reverse engineer the Mobile Check Deposit software.
- (x) If you attempt to use, copy, license, sublicense, sell or otherwise convey or to disclose the Mobile Check Deposit software, in any manner contrary to the terms of the Agreement, Truist shall have, in addition to any other remedies available to it, the right to injunctive relief enjoining such actions.
- (y) Truist's third party suppliers are entitled to exercise any defenses to which Truist would be entitled under our Agreement.
- (z) In no event shall Truist's suppliers be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or exemplary damages, including, but not limited to, damages for loss, profit, goodwill or other losses resulting from use of the Mobile Check Deposit software or any other product related thereto incurred by you or any third party, regardless of the form of action or claim (whether contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise), even if Truist, Truist's supplier, or their respective third party suppliers have been informed of the possibility thereof.

9. Truist Text Program Terms and Conditions

(a) Truist Text Program

For your convenience, Truist offers a service to enable you to receive text notifications regarding 1) information about your account(s) and 2) suspected fraudulent or suspicious activity on your account(s) ("Text Program"). You are under no obligation to use the Text Program. Text Program messages are not encrypted and will never contain your full account number. The information contained in Text Program messages is as of a specific time and date, but because the Text Program is subject to delay or interruption, it should not be considered real time information. You understand that messages through the Text Program may be delayed for a variety of reasons and will not reflect account activity that occurred after the message was sent. Truist may terminate your Text Program at any time without notice.

Text Program is being provided to you for convenience purposes only and does not change your payment or other obligations unless specifically stated otherwise. Information in a response text through the Text Program does not amend, supplement, change or replace any other notice or information that you may receive in connection with your account, including any information provided in a monthly periodic statement or account-related agreements. Text Program is being provided to you and this Agreement is made pursuant to the agreement applicable to the designated accounts. All terms and conditions of your account-related agreements, including any applicable arbitration provisions apply to your use of the Text Program unless specifically modified by this Agreement.

- i. By providing us with a mobile telephone number upon enrolling in the Text Program, you consent to receiving text messages from us at that number concerning your accounts with Truist and you also consent to Truist or our agents or assignees texting you by any method at the number you provide, including our use of automated dialing equipment. The texts include providing you with account reminders and servicing information. We will not use autodialed or prerecorded message calls or texts to contact you for marketing purposes at the phone number you provide unless we receive your prior express written consent. Separately from the Text Program, we may text you in response to fraud or other suspicious activity on your accounts as permitted by applicable law. We may contact you using one of the following short codes:

TRUIST (878478): Texting Program Opt In and General Account Servicing Information.

TRUACT (878228): Fraud Alerts

- ii. Opting Out of the Text Program

To stop receiving text messages from a short code, you can opt out via text message by sending a text that says "STOP" to any of the short codes from which you would like to opt out: 878478 or 878228. If you opt out of one short code, you will stop receiving texts from that short code only. For example, if you opt out of "878478," then you will continue to receive text message from 878228 (fraud alerts). You may also call the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478) to inform us of your choice to revoke consent for these types of text messages. Requests received via mail, email, or in a branch are not acceptable. If you terminate your Text Program, you will no longer receive texts from us through Text Program. Please note you may receive messages related to suspected fraudulent or suspicious activity on your account if you opt out of Text Program Servicing short code (878478). If you opt out of Text Program Fraud Alerts short code (878228), but not the Text Program Servicing short code (878228), you will continue to receive messages from the Text Program short code (878228).

- iii. Text Program through Carriers and Providers.

You understand that messages may be delayed or impacted by factor(s) pertaining to your Internet service provider(s), phone carriers, or other parties. Truist and phone carriers will not be liable for losses or damages arising from any disclosure of account information to third parties, non-delivery, delayed delivery, misdirected delivery or mishandling of, or inaccurate content in, the messages sent through the Text Program.

Truist does not charge you a fee for using our Text Program, but you understand that your wireless service provider's standard message and data rates may apply to texts sent through the Text Program, and charges may appear on your wireless bill or be deducted from your pre-paid balance. You are responsible for any fees or other charges that your wireless carrier may charge for any related data, text or other message services, including without limitation for short message service. Message Frequency may vary.

iv. Questions about Text Program and Notifying Truist of Changes.

For help, text "HELP" to any of the aforementioned short codes: Servicing - 878478 and Fraud - 878228. In case of questions, please call the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478). Note that text alerts and related functionalities may not be available on all phones or equipment, or through all wireless carriers.

You will immediately notify us if the mobile phone number you have registered for the Text Program is (i) surrendered by you, (ii) changed by you, or (iii) no longer used by you by logging into your online banking account at Truist.com or by contacting the Truist Contact Center at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478).

v. On-demand Features of the Text Program.

For your convenience, the Truist Text Program contains a Text Banking feature. This feature allows you on demand access to your checking, savings and credit card account balances, transaction history, as well as ATM and branch locations. For example, if you text "BAL" to the Text Program Servicing short code (878478) for Truist, you will promptly receive a response from us in a one-time text message containing the available balance of all your checking, savings, and consumer credit card accounts. You are under no obligation to use the Text Banking feature. Digital Banking clients who share mobile phone numbers across multiple online banking profiles are not eligible to use this feature.

The messages that Truist sends in response to your on-demand request through the Text Banking feature are not encrypted and will never contain your full account number. As with other text communications in the Text Program, the information contained in Text Banking messages is as of a specific time and date, but because Text Banking is subject to delay or interruption, it should not be considered real time information. You understand that messages through Text Banking may be delayed for a variety of reasons (e.g., factors relating to your internet service provider(s), phone carriers, or other parties) and will not reflect account activity that occurred after the message was sent. Because the text messages we send to you through Text Banking are one-time, on demand messages, the timing and frequency of the messages you receive will depend on when and how frequently you send a text to us with a designated command to request information. Our response messages will be sent promptly after receiving your request text through Text Banking. A list of the on-demand commands and message features of Text Banking may be accessed here.

Truist may terminate your Text Banking service at any time without notice. You may terminate your participation in Text Banking by opting out of the Text Program as described above. If you terminate your Text Program participation, you will no longer be able to take advantage of the Text Banking feature.

10. Download Services.

Download Services enables you to download specific information from Online Banking or Direct Connect into Quicken®, QuickBooks®, and other software applications. It is your responsibility to obtain a valid and separate license agreement with the Provider of the software application. Use of Direct Connect incurs a fee. Refer to the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule.

You understand and agree that:

- The information you download is for tracking purposes only and should not be considered an official record. Statements generated by Truist are the sole official record of Truist account transactions, positions, and balances.
- The account information will not reflect banking or financial activities and transactions that have not yet been posted to your account and will only reflect the account information at the time that you download the information. Pending transactions on your account will not be included in your download.
- It is your responsibility to update your downloaded account information to your software application. Truist will not initiate updates to downloaded information.
- Truist is not liable for any loss, damages or expenses of any kind as a result of your reliance upon the downloaded information in your software application.

11. Additional Services

(a) Online Statement and Document Delivery Service

The Truist Online Statement and Document Delivery Service (the "Delivery Service") is provided by Truist ("we" and "us").

i. Service Requirements

The Delivery Service provides you with access to an electronic version of your account statements or other documents for eligible accounts. This Delivery Service is provided to you free of charge and permits the flexibility of saving and printing account statements at any time. You may be notified through email when your statement is ready for viewing. You must validate your email address upon enrollment. We will attempt to notify you that a statement is available to view.

ii. Eligible Accounts

Online statements and documents for eligible accounts such as checking, savings, money market, Asset Management Account, loan and lines of credit, and credit card accounts that have recurring periodic statements and that are included in a customer's portfolio of accounts accessed through Truist's Online Banking Service are eligible for the Delivery Service. Truist reserves the right to change or modify decisions regarding account eligibility in its sole discretion.

If you are the owner of an account with other owners, you agree and understand that your electronic notice may be consolidated with the notice for other account owners who are members of your household into a single email or other electronic message sent to one, specific email address shared by you and all other owners in your household as the email address of record for the Delivery Service. As a member of the household, you agree and consent that access through the Delivery Service to one copy of an electronic record, such as an account statement, service agreement amendment, or a notice or disclosure required under applicable law, through a shared email address constitutes sufficient and effective delivery to you personally of such document as required by applicable law, rule or regulation.

iii. Online Statement Delivery

As a Truist Online Banking client you accept the terms of the Delivery Service. For accounts with multiple owners, only one account owner or representative is needed to establish the Delivery Service. If you currently receive a consolidated statement that includes multiple accounts and you opt for online statement delivery, all accounts shown on the consolidated statement will be automatically enrolled for online statement delivery. You can view, print and download your current statement(s) and available statement history.

Truist will no longer deliver paper statements or cancelled checks for any of the accounts included in the Delivery Service. If you currently receive your returned checks in your paper statements, this will be discontinued. In the event that you request paper delivery versus electronic in the future, this will not reinstate the returned checks.

You also agree to receive any legal notices or other important information currently delivered with your paper statements ("Statement Inserts") regarding these accounts only online. We may from time to time offer other legal notices through the Delivery Service. Your request for such delivery will be your acknowledgement that this section governs the delivery of the legal notices.

Examples of Statement Inserts that may be delivered online include, without limitation, Change of Terms notices, privacy statements, and Reg E Error Resolution Notice.

iv. Termination Rights

You may stop receiving electronic statements at any time by calling us at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478), stopping by your branch, or signing on to Online Banking and changing your delivery preference. You will not be charged a fee if you chose to terminate this Delivery Service and return to receiving paper statements for your accounts unless noted otherwise on the Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule. Truist may terminate the Delivery Service for any or all Designated Accounts at any time. Upon such Termination, delivery of paper copies of Electronic Records will resume within a reasonable time. Termination of the Delivery Service does not affect the validity or legal effect of any Electronic Record delivered to you or any Owners through the Delivery Service. Termination of the Delivery Service does not terminate Online Banking unless otherwise so stated.

v. Receiving Statement Photocopies

You can print a copy of your available online statements at any time. You can, also obtain a photocopy of your statement from Truist at any time. We will send you a photocopy of a statement previously delivered through the Delivery Service at your request. The standard fee then in effect and charged for paper delivery of account statements will apply. Please refer to your Personal Deposit Accounts Fee Schedule. Paper copies of statements can be requested by contacting us at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478). A request for a paper copy does not terminate the Delivery Service.

vi. Minimizing Risks

Certain risks are associated with the transmission of Communications through the Internet, including, but not limited to, unauthorized access, systems outages, delays, disruptions in telecommunications services and the Internet. Email is not private or secure. The Communication sent to you by email is an unencrypted, automatic alert. Although this Communication is not intended to contain personally identifiable confidential financial information, it may contain in its design part or all of your name or other identifier, which could be seen or intercepted by others if delivered to your business address or other computers or electronic devices not exclusively under your control. Do not respond to the Communication by return email, or use it to request information, service, paper copies or other items or to revoke consent. We will not be able to act upon requests made in that manner.

(b) Check and Deposit Images

You may view digital images of recent canceled (paid) checks and deposit slips. Online images may be viewed only for such periods of time as we may establish, after which copies are normally available from our archives upon request (we may charge a fee for such copies).

As is common industry practice with various check truncation or safekeeping services, we destroy the original items but retain the images for at least the number of years required by law. If an image of a check is missing or is illegible, we will attempt to provide you with a legible copy upon your request, if you give us adequate information to identify the specific check. However, we will have no liability to you if we are unable to provide a copy within your requested timeframe, or at all, due to any reason other than our gross negligence, willful misconduct or criminal conduct. We reserve the right to charge a fee for such requests in some circumstances, such as when the image is missing or illegible due to circumstances beyond our control.

(c) Balance Inquiries

You may use the service to check the balance of your accounts. The balances shown may differ from your records because they may not include deposits not available for withdrawal, outstanding checks or other withdrawals, payments or charges.

(d) Electronic Messaging

The Electronic Messaging service provides you with the ability to receive electronic messages from us.

From time to time, we may send important notices to you concerning your use of the service by electronic messaging. The electronic messaging service may not be used to send messages to the general public.

(e) Deals

The Truist Deals Program (the "Program") allows certain Truist Bank ("Truist") customers with eligible Truist Personal Credit Cards, Personal and Business Debit Cards, and Money Account Cards ("Card" or "Cards") to earn a statement credit or cash back when they use their Cards at retailers participating in the Program ("Participating Merchants"). Only Truist customers who have enrolled in Truist Online Banking at Truist.com or the Truist Mobile Banking App are eligible to participate.

Participating Merchants will offer a statement credit or cash back when customers use a Card to purchase certain items offered by the Participating Merchant ("Offer" or "Offers").

All customers who participate in the Program are subject to these terms and conditions (the "Rules") and any terms and conditions of an Offer established by Participating Merchants. These Rules supplement your Truist Bank Services Agreement, Money Account Cardholder Terms and Conditions, Truist Consumer Credit Card Agreement, and any other applicable agreement governing your Card account and associated services ("Account Agreements"). You agree to notify all other customers who have a card linked to your Card(s) of these Rules. Any customer who has a card linked to your Card(s) may be eligible to select and redeem Offers. In the event of a conflict between your Account Agreements and these Rules, the Rules will govern any matter relating to the Program while your Account Agreements will govern all other matters.

In these Rules, "Truist," "we," "our," and "us" refer to Truist. "You" and "your" mean every eligible person or entity who uses a Card. By participating in the Program, you agree to these Rules and agree that the Rules may be modified at our sole discretion, from time to time, with or without prior written notice. We reserve the right to terminate, modify, amend or suspend this Program in whole or in part at any time without notice to you. Your continued use of your Card constitutes your consent to these Rules.

i. Eligibility for the Program

Cards are automatically eligible for the Program. There is no enrollment required. However, you must meet the Program requirements to participate and earn a statement credit or cash back, including:

- (i) your Card must be active and in good standing at the time any statement credit or cash back is applied to your Card account;
- (ii) you have enrolled in Truist Online Banking at Truist.com;
- (iii) you meet the terms and conditions established by a Participating Merchant on an Offer; and
- (iv) you continue to satisfy all eligibility criteria that we establish for the Program.

ii. Earning a Statement Credit or Cash Back from the Program

The Program is only available to customers who have online access to the Card through Truist Online Banking at Truist.com or the Truist Mobile Banking App. You must log on to Truist.com or the Truist Mobile Banking App (the "Program Website") in order to see the list of Participating Merchants and the Offers. To be eligible for a statement credit or cash back in connection with an Offer, select the Offer by clicking on it and the Offer will load to your Cards. You cannot redeem Offers and earn a statement credit or cash back unless you first select them at the Program Website.

Participating Merchants set the terms and conditions for each Offer. You should review the details of the Offer, including any expiration date, before you select it and load it to your Card. Once you have loaded it, you must complete the specified purchase, and meet any other terms of the Offer, to earn a statement credit or cash back. In general, a statement credit or cash back will not be earned for any portion of your purchase that you pay for with store credit, gift certificates or other payment types, nor for the amount of tax or shipping and handling paid on a purchase; ATM transactions; or any transaction violating any federal, state or local law.

We try to provide Offers to places you've shopped or to similar merchants where you may like to shop.

The Program is separate and independent from any Truist Consumer Credit Card Rewards Program in which you are enrolled related to your Truist Consumer Credit Card Account(s). Any cash back earned through the Truist Deals Program is not eligible for any deposit bonus or other incentives that may be available when you redeem your Truist Consumer Credit Card Rewards. Deals offered through the Truist Deals Program are available apart from any rewards you may earn through any Truist Consumer Credit Card Rewards Program and will not accrue in your Truist Consumer Credit Card Rewards Program account.

iii. Statement Credits and Cash Back

You will usually receive a statement credit or cash back earned on an Offer in the month following your purchase. If you have more than one Truist account, Truist initially sets a default account to receive the statement credit or cash back; however, you may change the default account to another account ("Designated Account") in "Settings" on the Program Website. An individual may change the Designated Account to any account in which they are a joint or individual owner. Only one Designated Account may be selected at any time.

Your Designated Account must be open and in good standing in order to receive statement credits or cash back. If your Designated Account is closed by you or by us but you have other open accounts available, we may – in our sole discretion – select an alternative account to apply a statement credit or cash back. If you have no open Truist accounts when the cash back or statement credit is to be applied, you will forfeit any cash back that has not yet been applied to an account.

We will show the amount of the statement credit or cash back for Offers applied to your Designated Account on the Designated Account statement and on the Program Website.

Participating Merchants establish the terms of an Offer and fund the corresponding statement credit or cash back. Cardlytics administers the Program including collection of funds due from the Participating Merchants and remittance of these funds to Truist for applying to your Designated Account. You are not entitled to compensation from us or Cardlytics for the expiration or forfeiture of your Offers for any reason.

iv. Errors in Redemption, Statement Credit or Cash Back

In the event you have questions or believe an error has occurred relating to your redemption of any Offers, please call Truist at 844-4TRUIST (844-487-8478), 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You may also review the status of Offers on the Program Website.

Statement credit and cash back may take up to fifty (50) days from your purchase (date the charge appears on your Card account statement) to appear in your Designated Account or alternate account. If you believe that you have made purchases that should have earned a statement credit or cash back, but a statement credit or cash back has not been applied to your Designated Account or alternate account, you may contact us to investigate. If you do not contact us within ninety (90) days of your purchase date, we will not be obligated to investigate your request and your ability to claim a statement credit or cash back will be deemed waived.

v. Limited Liability

Unless otherwise required by law or as expressly stated in writing in an agreement between Truist and you, Truist and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, or agents will not be liable to you, or anyone making a claim on your behalf, in connection with (i) any change in the Program; (ii) any claim relating to products or services of any Participating Merchant, whether or not arising out of the Program; (iii) any loss, damage, expense or inconvenience caused by any occurrence outside of our control; (iv) any content, products or service appearing on a website to which we provide a link from the Program Website; (v) any claim relating to the terms and conditions of any Offers; or (vi) any taxes that you incur as a result of receiving a statement credit or cash back. Participating Merchants are solely responsible for the Offers and funding of a statement credit or cash back to you. In any event, any liability that Truist may have to you in connection with the Program shall be limited to the amount of any statement credit or cash back from Offers which have earned in accordance with the Rules of the Program and that Truist has received from Cardlytics and the Participating Retailers.

vi. No Warranties

Truist and Cardlytics do not: (i) endorse any Participating Merchants; (ii) make any express or implied warranty regarding any Participating Merchant's goods or services; (iii) assume responsibility for any Participating Merchant's obligation to you, including the payment of any statement credit or cash back offered by the Participating Retailer; or (iv) guarantee the performance of any Participating Retailer under the Program. Truist does not operate or control the products, services, or initial payment of Offers made by Participating Merchants. Participating Retailers are solely responsible for the funding of Offers through Cardlytics to Truist.

vii. Your Information

We do not share your personal information with Participating Merchants. Please refer to the Truist Privacy Policy for more information about Truist's privacy practices.

Offer alerts will be sent to you as reminders of new Offers, expiring Offers and other program information. You may opt out of receiving these Offer alerts by changing your alert settings at Truist.com. Cardlytics will not send you any Offer alerts. All Offer alerts will come directly from Truist.

viii. Opting Out

You may opt out of receiving Offers on the Program Website. If you opt out, you will not receive any further Offers. Purchases made after the opt-out date will not earn any statement credit or cash back even if you loaded an Offer to your Card before you opted-out.

You may continue to see Offers information and alerts until the change becomes effective. You will forfeit any statement credit or cash back that has not yet posted to a Designated Account upon cancellation of your participation.

ix. General

The Program is void where prohibited by law and subject to the Program Rules and the terms in your Account Agreement, including, but not limited to, the arbitration of disputes provisions contained in your Account Agreement.

This Program is offered at our sole discretion and we have no obligation to continue the Program or to make the Program available to you. We reserve the right to amend, cancel, change, discontinue, or suspend the Truist Deals Program, in whole or in part, at any time in our discretion with or without notice to you; any such action shall be effective as of the time we determine. You agree that any notice or communication we elect to provide you in connection with the Program, including (without limitation) any notice of a change in terms, may be provided to you electronically by either posting such notice at our website or by transmitting to your e-mail address any such notice (or a message as to the availability of such notice at our website). In any event, it is your responsibility to periodically review the Program Terms at our website to ensure that you are aware of the most current Program Terms.

No delay or omission by us in exercising any rights or remedies hereunder shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such right or remedy. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any terms and conditions applicable to other services, this Agreement shall control as to the subject matter addressed herein.

(m) MUTUAL ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

READ THIS PROVISION CAREFULLY AS IT WILL HAVE A SUBSTANTIAL IMPACT ON HOW DISPUTES AND CLAIMS YOU AND WE HAVE AGAINST EACH OTHER ARE RESOLVED.

For any Claim subject to arbitration, neither You nor we will have the right to: (1) have a court or a jury decide the Claim; (2) engage in information-gathering (discovery) to the same extent as in court; (3) participate in a class action in court or in arbitration; or (4) join or consolidate a Claim with claims of any other person. The right to appeal is more limited in arbitration than in court and other rights in court may be unavailable or limited in arbitration. Upon election by either party, the Parties mutually agree to resolve any and all disputes between them exclusively through final, binding, and individual arbitration instead of filing a lawsuit in court (except as otherwise provided below). However, this Mutual Arbitration Agreement does not cover disputes that, as a matter of law, may not be subject to pre-dispute arbitration agreements.

Claims Subject to Arbitration. A “Claim” subject to arbitration is any claim, cause of action, dispute, or controversy between You and us (other than an Excluded Claim or Proceeding as set forth below), whether preexisting, present, or future, which arises out of or relates to the account, this Agreement, any transaction conducted with us in connection with the account or Agreement, or our relationship. “Claim” has the broadest possible meaning and includes initial claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, third-party claims, and federal, state, local, and administrative claims. It includes disputes based upon contract, tort, consumer rights, fraud, and other intentional torts, constitution, statute, regulation, ordinance, common law, and equity, and includes claims for money damages and injunctive or declaratory relief. “Claim” also includes disputes concerning communications involving telephones, cell phones, automatic dialing systems, artificial or prerecorded voice messages, text messages, emails, or facsimile machines and alleged violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act and other statutes or regulations involving telemarketing. Upon the demand of You or us, any Claim(s) will be resolved by individual (as opposed to class, mass, collective, or representative) binding arbitration in accordance with the terms specified in this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.

Special Definition of “We,” “Us,” “Our,” and “Parties.” Solely for purposes of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement, the terms “Truist,” “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Parties,” in addition to the meanings set forth in this] Agreement, also refer to Truist Bank’s employees, officers, directors, parents, controlling persons, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns. The “Parties” refers to both You and Truist. “We,” “us,” “our,” and “Parties” also apply to third parties if You assert a Claim against such third parties in connection with a Claim You assert against us.

Excluded Claim or Proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, “Claim” does not include any dispute regarding (1) any individual action brought by You or us in small claims court or Your state’s equivalent court, unless such action is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court, (2) the exercising of any self-help rights, including set-off as described in the Agreement section titled “Right of Setoff” or (3) any individual action in court by one party that is limited to preventing the other party from using a self-help remedy and that does not involve a request for damages or monetary relief of any kind. The institution and/or maintenance of any such right, action, or litigation shall not constitute a waiver of the right of either of the Parties to compel arbitration regarding any other dispute subject to arbitration pursuant to this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.

Federal Arbitration Act. Notwithstanding any choice of law or other provision in this Agreement, the Parties agree and acknowledge that this agreement evidences a transaction involving interstate commerce and that the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code) (“FAA”) shall govern its interpretation and enforcement and proceedings pursuant thereto. The Parties expressly agree that this Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall be governed by the FAA even in the event You and/or Truist are otherwise exempted from the FAA. Any disputes in this regard shall be resolved exclusively by an arbitrator. The Parties expressly intend for the FAA to govern the interpretation and enforcement of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement, and all arbitration proceedings pursuant thereto, even in the event that the FAA is determined not to apply. The Parties hereby incorporate by reference the FAA, and its rules and procedures, into this Mutual Arbitration Agreement. If for whatever reason the rules and procedures of the FAA cannot apply, the state law governing arbitration agreements in the state in which You reside shall apply.

Class, Mass, Collective, and/or Representative Action Waiver. The Parties mutually agree that if You or we elect to arbitrate a Claim, such Claims will be resolved in individual arbitration. The Parties further agree that, to the maximum extent allowable by law, by entering into this Mutual Arbitration Agreement, they waive the right to have any Claim brought, heard, administered, resolved, or arbitrated as a class, mass, collective, or representative action, and an arbitrator shall not have any authority to hear or arbitrate any class, mass, collective, and/or representative action, or to award relief to anyone but the individual in arbitration. This Class, Mass, Collective, and/or Representative Action Waiver does not prevent You or Truist from participating in a class-wide settlement of claims, to the extent You or we do not exercise a right to opt out of such settlement.

Arbitration Procedures.

- i. Either You or Truist may initiate arbitration by submitting a demand for arbitration to the arbitration administrator, within the applicable statute of limitations period, and the demand must include (1) the name, telephone number, mailing address, and e-mail address of the party seeking arbitration; (2) the account number of any account at issue; (3) a statement of the legal claims being asserted and the factual bases of those claims; (4) a description of the remedy sought and an accurate, good-faith calculation of the amount in controversy, enumerated in United States Dollars (any request for injunctive relief or attorneys' fees shall not count toward the calculation of the amount in controversy unless such injunctive relief seeks the payment of money); (5) the original personal signature of the party seeking arbitration (a digital, electronic, copied, or facsimile signature is not sufficient); and (6) the party's portion of the applicable filing fee. The party initiating arbitration must also serve the demand on the other party via certified mail, return receipt requested, or hand delivery. If the party seeking arbitration is represented by counsel, counsel must also provide an original personal signature on the demand for arbitration (a digital, electronic, copied, or facsimile signature is not sufficient). Counsel must also provide a certification that, to the best of counsel's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, (1) the demand for arbitration is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of dispute resolution; (2) the claims and other legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a non-frivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law or for establishing new law; and (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support, or if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery. Any demand for arbitration by You must be delivered to Truist Bank Legal Department, Attn: General Counsel- Arbitration Election, 214 N. Tyron St. Mail Code: 500-93-43-13, Charlotte, NC 28202, and our notice must be sent to the most recent address for You in our files.
- ii. As part of the Parties' agreement to resolve Claims by individual arbitration, You agree not to have Your arbitration demand filed or prosecuted by a law firm or collection of law firms that has filed more than 25 arbitration demands of a substantially similar nature against Truist within 180 days of Your arbitration demand, if the law firm or collective of law firms seeks to simultaneously or collectively administer and/or arbitrate all the arbitration demands together. All arbitration demands must be filed, administered, arbitrated, and resolved in an individual manner.
- iii. Any arbitration hearing that You attend must take place in a venue reasonably convenient to You. If a party files a lawsuit in court asserting any Claim(s) that are subject to arbitration and the other party demands arbitration or files a motion to compel arbitration with the court which is granted, it will be the responsibility of the party prosecuting the Claim(s) to commence the arbitration proceeding with an arbitration administrator in accordance with this Mutual Arbitration Agreement and the administrator's rules and procedures. Nothing in that litigation shall constitute a waiver of any rights under this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.
- iv. The arbitration will be administered by JAMS, 1920 Main Street, Suite 300, Irvine, CA 92614, www.jamsadr.com, 800-352-5267. The rules and forms of JAMS may be obtained by writing to JAMS at the address listed above or visiting their website. If JAMS is unable or unwilling to serve as administrator, the parties may agree upon another administrator, or if they are unable to agree, a court shall determine the administrator. No company may serve as administrator, without the consent of all parties, if it fails to abide by the terms of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement. The arbitration will proceed in accordance with this arbitration agreement and the administrator's rules and procedures in effect at the time of commencement of the arbitration, including any streamlined or expedited arbitration rules, but in the event of a conflict between the two, the provisions of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall supersede any and all conflicting arbitration administrator's rules or procedures.
- v. In addition to all other requirements in this agreement, the following provisions shall apply to all arbitrations between the Parties: (1) Truist and You shall equally share filing fees and other similar and usual administrative costs, as are common to both court and administrative proceedings, such as court reporter costs and transcript fees; but if an arbitrator determines that its rules or applicable law requires that Your share of fees and other costs be capped at a certain amount, such as the filing fee to file the case in a court of competent jurisdiction embracing the location of the arbitration, then You will only be responsible for that maximum amount permitted by rule or law Truist shall pay any costs that are uniquely associated with arbitration, such as payment of the arbitrator and room rental; (2) If a party timely serves an offer of judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68, and the judgment that the other party finally obtains is not more favorable than the unaccepted offer, then the other party shall pay the costs of the party serving the offer of judgment, including filing fees, incurred after the offer was made; (3) Both Parties agree not to oppose or interfere with any negotiations or agreements between the other Party and the arbitration administrator, or individual arbitrator, relating to a party's portion of the fees. The arbitrator, however, may disallow any private agreement between an administrator, on the one hand, and the negotiating party, on the other hand, if the arbitrator believes that the private agreement undermines his or her neutrality as arbitrator; (4) The arbitrator may issue orders (including subpoenas to third parties) allowing the Parties to conduct discovery sufficient to allow each party to prepare that party's claims and/or defenses, taking into consideration that arbitration is designed to be a speedy and efficient method for resolving disputes; (5) Except as provided in the Class, Mass, Collective, and/or Representative Action Waiver, the arbitrator may award all remedies to which a party is entitled under applicable law and which would otherwise be available in a court of law, including but not limited to the imposition of sanctions under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, but shall not be empowered to award any remedies that would not have been available in a court of law for the claims presented in arbitration. The arbitrator shall apply state or federal substantive law, or both, as is applicable; (6) The arbitrator may hear motions to dismiss and/or motions for summary judgment. Any motion to dismiss and/or motion for summary judgment shall be governed by the standards of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure governing such motions; (7) The arbitrator's decision or award shall be in writing with findings of fact and conclusions of law; (8) Any finding that a claim or counterclaim was filed for purposes of harassment or is frivolous shall entitle the other party to recover its, his, or her attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses; (9) Either Truist or You may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for temporary or preliminary injunctive relief on the ground that without such relief the arbitration may be rendered ineffectual; (10) Under no circumstances is the arbitrator bound by decisions reached in separate arbitrations; and (11) No arbitrator shall have the power to conduct arbitrations on any basis other than an individual basis. If at any time the arbitrator or arbitration administrator fails to enforce the terms of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement, either party may seek to enjoin the arbitration proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction, and the arbitration shall automatically be stayed pending the outcome of that proceeding.

- vi. A single arbitrator will be appointed by the administrator, and unless You and Truist agree otherwise, must be a practicing attorney with ten or more years of experience or a retired judge. Except as specifically stated herein, the arbitrator will not be bound by judicial rules of procedure and evidence that would apply in a court, nor by state or local laws that relate to arbitration provisions or proceedings. A judgment on the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction.

Survival and Severability. This Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall survive the closing of Your Account, the termination of Your Service, and the termination of any relationship between us, including the termination of this Agreement. Except as specified in the Class, Consolidated, Collective, and/or Representative Action Waiver, if any portion of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement is found unenforceable, it shall be severed from the Mutual Arbitration Agreement such that the remainder of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. A determination that this Mutual Arbitration Agreement is unenforceable or void in its entirety shall have no effect on the validity or enforceability of any other arbitration agreement between or applicable to the Parties.

Effect of Arbitration Award. The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding on all parties, except for any right of appeal provided by the FAA. However, if the amount of the Claim exceeds $250,000 or involves a request for injunctive or declaratory relief that could foreseeably involve a cost or benefit to either party exceeding $250,000, any party can, within thirty (30) days after the entry of the award by the arbitrator, appeal the award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the Administrator. The panel shall reconsider anew any aspect of the initial award requested by the appealing party. The decision of the panel shall be by majority vote. Reference in this Mutual Arbitration Agreement to "the arbitrator" shall mean the panel if an appeal of the arbitrator's decision has been taken. The costs of such an appeal will be borne in accordance with the above paragraph titled "Arbitration Procedures." Any final decision of the appeal panel is subject to judicial review only as provided under the FAA. No arbitration award involving the parties will have any preclusive effect as to issues or claims in any dispute involving anyone who is not a party to the arbitration, nor will an arbitration award in prior disputes involving other parties have preclusive effect in an arbitration between the parties to this agreement.

Right to Opt Out (New Users) – Please Read. You may opt out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement within thirty (30) days of opening Your Account. In order to opt out, You, and only You personally, must notify Truist of Your intention to opt out by submitting to Truist, via certified mail or by overnight carrier mail, return receipt requested, to Truist Bank Legal Department, Attn: Arbitration Opt Out, Mail Code 306-40-01-15, 1001 Semmes Avenue, Richmond, VA 23224, a written notice stating that You are opting out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement. This written notice must be signed by You, and not any attorney, agent, or other representative of Yours and include Your name, address, Account name, and Account number. In order to be effective, Your opt-out notice must be received by Truist within thirty (30) days of opening Your Account. This is the sole and only method by which You can opt-out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement and any attempt to reject this Mutual Arbitration Agreement by any other person or through any other method or form of notice, including the filing of a lawsuit, will be ineffective. You agree that Your opt-out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall not be imputed to any other person or entity or be deemed to be a rejection of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement by any person or entity other than You. Your opt-out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall not eliminate the obligation of other persons or entities who wish to reject this Mutual Arbitration Agreement to personally comply with the notice and time requirements of this paragraph. If You opt out as provided in this subparagraph, You will not be subject to any adverse action as a consequence of that decision and may pursue available legal remedies without regard to this Mutual Arbitration Agreement. If Truist does not receive proper notice of a timely opt out, You are agreeing to the terms of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.

- i. You may only opt out on behalf of Yourself. A written notice submitted to Truist indicating Your intention to opt out may apply, at most, to You. You (and Your agent or representative) may not effectuate an opt out on behalf of other individuals.
- ii. Your decision to opt out of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement will not relieve You of any obligation to arbitrate disputes that might arise under any other Account or agreement with Truist that contains an arbitration provision to which You may be bound as a customer. Similarly, Your decision to opt out of another arbitration provision contained in any other Account or agreement shall not relieve You of Your obligation to arbitrate disputes pursuant to this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.

Impact on Pending Litigation. This Mutual Arbitration Agreement shall not affect Your standing with respect to any litigation between Truist and You that is pending in a state or federal court or arbitration as of the date of Your receipt of this Mutual Arbitration Agreement, unless on such date You were bound by an existing arbitration agreement with Truist, in which case that agreement shall continue to apply.

Right to Consult with an Attorney. You have the right to consult with private counsel of Your choice, at Your own expense, with respect to any aspect of, or any Claim that may be subject to, this Mutual Arbitration Agreement.
