

Association Services Loan Application

Association Services

Association Services, a division of Truist Bank ("Truist"), has the resources and experience to assist community and homeowner associations with repairs, renovations, and/or insurance premium financing.

Truist can customize a flexible loan program designed to meet the ever-changing needs of associations. Loans to the association provide individual unit owners a comfortable monthly payment while allowing associations to complete projects immediately, without depleting association reserves.

Take the first step

As a first step toward applying for an Association Loan, please print and complete the application and provide the financial information outlined below. Additional documents or information may be requested at a later date as the loan process progresses.

AUTHORIZATION

Each Authorized Signer(s) of the Community Association Loan Application hereby instructs and authorizes Truist or any affiliate, subsidiary or other entity related thereto ("Lender") to verify or re-verify the information contained in this Application or in other documents submitted in connection with this Application. Each Authorized Signer, on behalf of the Applicant, authorizes Lender to obtain a credit report and any other information relating to Applicant's credit status in connection with (a) this Application; (b) the opening of an account with Lender; (c) the application for any other loan or other product or service offered by Lender; (d) Lender's review of a loan, account, or other Lender product or service made or extended to Applicant, either as part of the decision to extend credit or as part of Lender's review and quality control program; and (e) Lender's collection of a loan, account or other Lender product or service obtained by Applicant. If credit is extended, each Authorized Signer authorizes the Lender in the future to obtain additional credit reports as the Lender deems necessary. Each Authorized Signer hereby certifies that: (a) the foregoing has been carefully read and is given to Lender for the purpose of obtaining the credit described above and other credit from time to time in whatever form; (b) the information in this Application and any other documents or information submitted in connection with this Application or any other credit request are true and correct statements of Applicant's financial condition and may be treated by the Lender as a continuing statement thereof until replaced by a new Application or information or until Applicant specifically notifies the Lender in writing of any change; (c) the credit requested herein and any other credit obtained from the Lender by the Applicant on the basis of the information contained in this Application shall be used solely for business and commercial purposes; and (d) the Authorized Signer(s) signing below on behalf of Applicant is duly authorized and empowered to request credit on behalf of Applicant.

DISCLOSURES

Bank Secrecy Act Notice – To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each "person" (individual or business) who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, Lender will ask for your name, address, date of birth (or proof of existence of a business entity) and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Denial Disclosure – If your application for credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reason(s) for the denial. A statement can be obtained by writing to the following address within 60 days from the date you are notified of the decision. Attn: Community Bank Risk Management Quality Assurance, (MC 100-50-02-59), P.O. Box 1847, Wilson, NC 27893-1847 (Ph. 866-874-2609). We will send you a written statement of the reason(s) for the denial within 30 days of receiving your request.

Equal Credit Opportunity Disclosure – The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided that the applicant has the legal capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC, 20006.
