These funds were not selected for or tailored to any investor’s individual circumstances. Offering these funds are not intended to be a recommendation to invest or hold any of these funds. Investors should read the prospectus carefully and consider the fund’s investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses before investing.

Investing in certain funds involves special risks, such as those related to investments in foreign securities, small and mid-capitalization stocks, and high-yield securities.

- Excess balance can be invested in mutual funds.
- Mutual fund elections are made via the Truist Consumer Portal at TruistHSAFlex.com.
- A link to set up Investment Sweeps will be available via the consumer portal.
- Automatic sweep investment elections are made with a minimum transfer amount of $100 or more.
- All funds may be purchased at net asset value (NAV) without a front-end load. Redemption fees may apply.
- For fund prospectus information, please visit TruistHSAFlex.com.

For Mutual Fund Investments: Please consult the HSA Custodial Agreement and Disclosure for information concerning fees, expenses and dividends on the Mutual Fund Investment Options. For Brokerage Sub-Account Investments: Please consult the Brokerage Agreement for information concerning fees and expenses relating to investments and trades made via the Brokerage Sub-Account.

Your HSA funds may be held in a custodial deposit account at Truist Bank. While so deposited, the funds are FDIC-insured to the extent provided by law. Securities, insurance and advisory products or services including mutual fund investments made through your Sweep Investment Sub-Account and investments in securities made through your Brokerage Sub-Account are: NOT A DEPOSIT • NOT FDIC-INSURED • NOT GUARANTEED BY A BANK • NOT INSURED BY STATE OR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AGENCY • MAY GO DOWN IN VALUE.

Truist and its representatives do not offer tax or legal advice. Please consult your tax or legal professional regarding your individual circumstances.
